

QUINCY PUBLIC LIBRARY
SOLICITATION/SELLING IN THE LIBRARY POLICY

Solicitation of donations and the selling of products or services by outside or non-library-sponsored individuals, groups, or organizations is not permitted in the Library. Selling as part of co-sponsored programs and library-sponsored selling of other products strictly for the benefit of the Library may be approved by the Executive Director and/or Board of Trustees. Advertising and inclusion in Library promotions may be provided by the Library.

The United Way Fund campaign, which is conducted in-house by the Library staff (including a United Way basket raffle for staff and public), is allowed.

The Friends of the Library may operate a used book store and host an occasional book sale to benefit the Library.
